

I would like to express my interest in the continuance of air 1's current mode of operation. They provide an invaluable resource to my community in that they are the only faith-based radio for younger people in my area. Displacing Air 1 would leave this area without any alternative to secular radio for those who desire an alternative. Our community would suffer from the decrease in diversity and positive choices that we have on radio.